MICHIGAN NOTICE FORM

Notice of Psychologist's Policies & Practices to Protect the Privacy of Your Patient's Health Information

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

I may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for treatment, payment and health care operations purposes with your consent. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

* "PHI" refers to information in your health record that could identify you.

 "Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations" — Treatment is when I provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and other services related to your health care. An example of treatment would be when I consult with another health care provider, such as your family physician or another psychologist.

— Payment is when I obtain reimbursement for your health care. Examples of payment are when I disclose your PHI to your health care provider or to determine eligibility or coverage.

— Health Care Operations are activities that relate to the performance and operation of my practice. Examples of health care operations are quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and case management and care coordination

* "Use" applies only to activities within my (office, clinic, practice group, etc.), such as sharing, employing, applying, utilizing, examining, and analyzing information that identifies you.

 "Disclosure" applies to activities outside my (office, clinic, practice group, etc.), such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

II Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, or health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. An

"authorization" is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosure. In those instances when I am asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment or health care operations, I will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) I have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

III Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

Child Abuse — If I have reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or neglect, I must report this suspicion to the appropriate authorities as required by law.

Adult and Domestic Abuse — If I have reasonable cause to suspect you have been criminally abused, I must report this suspicion to the appropriate authorities as required by law.

Health Oversight Activities — If I receive a subpoena or other lawful request from the Department of Health of the Michigan Board of Psychology, I must disclose the relevant PHI pursuant to that subpoena or lawful request.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings — If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about your diagnosis and treatment or the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law, and I will not release information without your written authorization or court order. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated or a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.

Serious Threat to Health or Safety — If you communicate to me a threat of physical violence against a reasonably identifiable third person and you have the apparent intent and ability to carry out that threat in the foreseeable future, I may disclose relevant PHI and take the reasonable steps permitted by law to prevent the threatened harm from occurring. If I believe that there is an imminent risk that you will inflict serious physical harm on yourself, I may disclose information in order to protect you.

Worker's Compensation — I may disclose protected health information regarding you as authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or other similar programs, established by law, that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness without regard to fault.

IV Patient's Rights and Psychologist's Duties

Patient's Rights:

Rights to Request Restrictions — You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information. However, I am not required to agree to a restriction you request.

Right to Receive Confidential Communications By Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations — You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are seeing me. On your request, I will send your bills to another address.)

Right to Inspect and Copy — You have the right to inspect or obtain a copy (or both) of PHI in my mental health and billing records used to make decisions about you for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. I may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the request & denial process.

Right to Amend — You have the right to request amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. I may deny your request. At your request, I will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.

Right to Accounting — You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures to PHI. On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the accounting process. Right to a Paper Copy — You have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from me upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.
